Above & Beyond

Volume 7, Edition 8

RISE on Social Media – It has become increasing difficult to publish the great stories, pictures, and videos in our monthly issue of this e-newsletter, “Above and Beyond”. From our beginning, over seven years ago, RISE has has published this e-newsletter every single month. RISE will continue to publish it but just update programming and events. RISE has so many ongoing programs we now post those daily on the major social media outlets above. Please follow RISE Adaptive Sports on these outlets and share the great stories and updates with your friends.

In this issue of “Above and Beyond” there are a few programming and event updates/changes. RISE does everything possible contractually securing dates before promoting. We do have signed contracts but our vendor/partners asked if we could work with them on changing some dates and we obliged. PLEASE NOTE THESE UPDATES!
